

Imogen Returns

Having recently had another opportunity to spend time with Ophelia at her ocean-side studio, I feel it's time to address the elephant in the room and talk about the significant problem I have with the whole "Cross Dressing With Class" experience. What's this big problem, you ask? It's simply this. It's just too damn addictive!

For those of you reading these testimonials and perhaps thinking about coming to experience the whole mind-blowing experience, be aware that you'll find it hard to do it just once! It really is that good. You'll be made to feel so relaxed and natural, that you'll quickly forget all your fears and anxieties about the whole crossing-dressing phenomenon, and want more!

Well, for those of you who would dearly love a second or third follow-up visit, but perhaps can't quite justify the time or cost for the full makeover experience, Ophelia has introduced a fabulous new experience that I had the opportunity to enjoy a few weeks back.

This new service that Ophelia calls the Master Class (only for subsequent visits) gave me a chance to put the skills I'd been given on earlier visits into action. Arriving with a bag full of my own clothes, shoes, wig and makeup, Ophelia set me up in her fantastic makeup studio and supervised me doing my own makeover. Having a chance to use my own cosmetics, but with hints and tips given to me by someone with many years of experience, was fantastic. And like any girl getting ready at one of her girlfriend's houses, the few things I was missing or had forgotten were taken care of by the always generous Ophelia.

After an hour or so of getting ready and being given expert advice on different looks and colours, I was ready for a quick shopping trip to what has to be the best-stocked St Vincent De Paul store I've ever experienced! Only a couple of kilometres from Ophelia's studio is this incredible store, packed full of designer clothes, shoes and bags that has to be seen to be believed!

As you can probably tell by my testimonials, I am hugely indebted to the lovely Ophelia for all she has done for me. Every experience with her has been truly transformational in every sense of the word. I can't recommend her highly enough.
